

Review 3

An Island's Beauty, an Islander's Duty

I. 文意字彙與詞類變化：36%

- effect 1. Lack of sleep may have a negative e_____t on students' learning.
- damage 2. Watching too much TV can cause serious d_____e to our eyesight.
- [L9] contrasts 3. In his story, the author c_____ts the leading character's kindness with the dark side of human nature.
- [L8] offered 4. Leo was o_____red a position as an assistant engineer, but he turned it down because the company was far away from his home.
- [L9] efforts 5. After one year of training and practice, the marathon runner's e_____ts were rewarded with a gold medal.
- captured 6. With the help of hidden video cameras, the robber was finally c_____ed by the police.
- prevent 7. After all the mass shootings, there have been more discussions of gun control to p_____t such tragedies from happening again.
- [L8] awareness 8. The local police offer free workshops for schools and businesses to raise _____ (aware) of the problem of drunk driving.
- [L9] pollution 9. Air _____ (pollute) comes from many different sources, including vehicles and power plants.
- [L5] Environmental 10. _____ (environment) problems like global warming and climate change have had a great impact on our planet.
- gratitude 11. After the boy was saved from the burning house, his parents were filled with _____ (grateful) and hugged the firefighters.
- horrified 12. It _____ (horror) Tom to learn that more than 3 billion plastic straws are used per year in Taiwan.

II. 文法選擇：15%

- (C) 1. After much discussion, the family still could not agree on where _____ on holiday.
(A) go (B) went (C) to go (D) going
- (D) 2. Don't fix everything at once. You should focus on _____ one problem at a time.
(A) solve (B) solved (C) to solve (D) solving
- L6 (A) 3. It is in July _____ Mandy is going on vacation in Hawaii.
(A) that (B) what (C) where (D) who
- L8 (B) 4. Ian turned down the TV _____ the sound wouldn't disturb his wife.
(A) in order to (B) so that (C) due to (D) rather than
- (C) 5. Judy has _____ ten years learning to speak perfect Greek.
(A) cost (B) taken (C) spent (D) made

III. 綜合測驗：15%

There once was a man who loved Taiwan so much that he decided to make a movie about it. When he was younger, he had worked for the government. In that job, he had spent years 1. pictures from the air. 2. many other photographers, he loved to take pictures of things like beautiful mountains, rivers, and forests.

In 1998, the man's life 3.. His pictures caught the attention of a famous magazine. 4. reading the magazine articles 4. he realized he should care more about Taiwan's environment. So the man decided to focus his photography on what Taiwan really looked like. More than a decade later, a violent storm 5. Taiwan. Soon after the sky cleared, the man saw how environmental damage had caused a lot of mud and rocks to slide down the mountain. That's when he decided to make a movie to show the people of his country the problems their environment was facing.

- (D) 1. (A) take (B) taken (C) took (D) taking
- (B) 2. (A) Without (B) Like (C) As (D) Under
- (A) 3. (A) took a turn (B) took turns
(C) has taken a turn (D) had taken turns

- [L6] (B) 4. (A) It was; that (B) It was through; that
(C) It was; when (D) It was through; when
(C) 5. (A) strike (B) stroke (C) hit (D) hits

IV. 句型練習：16%

- [L8] 1. { The bears slept the whole winter.
They wouldn't need to search for food in the snow. (...so that...合併句子)
The bears slept the whole winter so that they wouldn't need to search for food in the snow.
- [L1] 2. { I was shocked to learn it.
Aaron and Joseph are brothers. (合併句子)
I was shocked to learn that Aaron and Joseph are brothers.
3. { My friend Alicia has three dogs and two cats.
Alicia is a retired nurse. (以同位語合併句子)
My friend Alicia, a retired nurse, has three dogs and two cats.
4. It took John ten hours to finish his writing assignment. (以...spent...改寫句子)
John spent ten hours finishing his writing assignment.

V. 引導式翻譯：9%

1. 我厭倦那麼辛苦地嘗試，但不到實現目標我絕不放棄。
I'm tired of trying so hard, but I won't give up until I reach my goal.
2. 當 Mary 得到第一名時，她覺得所有的努力終於有所回報。
When Mary won first place, she felt all her hard work had finally paid off.
3. 當 Jenny 跟我說我們不再是朋友的時候，這真的讓我傷心欲絕。
When Jenny told me that we were no longer friends, it really tore at my heart.

VI. 閱讀測驗：9%

If you want your dream to come true, you have to risk everything. Nobody knew this better than filmmaker Chi Po-lin. In 2009, when he was 45 years old, he had a good job with the government of Taiwan. In just three more years, he was set to receive his pension. But he chose to quit his job to focus on his true passion, filming the beautiful natural scenery in Taiwan.

Four years after quitting his job, Chi released a documentary called Beyond Beauty: Taiwan from Above. It was full of scenes filmed from the sky above the country. Chi had over twenty years of experience shooting pictures from helicopters. He knew the risks, but for him the risks were worth it. Sadly, though, he died in an aircraft accident in 2017, while filming the sequel to Beyond Beauty. He is remembered today not only as a great filmmaker but as a kind and generous man.

- (B) 1. What is the passage mainly about?
- (A) Where Chi Po-lin had been to in Taiwan.
 - (B) What Chi Po-lin risked to realize his dream.
 - (C) How Chi Po-lin shot a film from helicopters.
 - (D) Why Chi Po-lin made a documentary for Taiwan.
- (D) 2. According to the passage, why did Chi Po-lin choose to quit his job?
- (A) He was too old to work for the government at that time.
 - (B) He already had a lot of money and didn't need his pension.
 - (C) He could make even more money by shooting a documentary.
 - (D) He had found what he really wanted to do and couldn't wait any longer.
- (B) 3. What can we infer from the passage?
- (A) Chi died in an aircraft accident at the age of 45.
 - (B) It took Chi four years to finish his documentary Beyond Beauty.
 - (C) Shooting from helicopters was a new experience for Chi in 2009.
 - (D) Chi didn't know shooting films from helicopters could be dangerous.