

Review 1

How Do You Take Your Tea, High or Low?

I. 文意字彙與詞類變化：36%

- spread 1. The news that the company is going to close down s d quickly. Now almost everyone knows it.
- quality 2. If you are concerned about the q y of this product, you should check the online reviews before you buy it.
- starving 3. Jimmy has worked all day long without eating anything. He's s g now.
- typically 4. Some people in England t y have their teatime in the afternoon, even on weekends.
- [L2] remained 5. When the movie star was asked about her marriage, she just r ned silent and would not answer.
- [L2] comparison 6. The writer makes a c n between festivals in different countries.
- [L2] pleasant 7. Listening to light music is a p t experience that can help people relax.
- character 8. Linda's boyfriend is known for his simple and honest c r (characteristic).
- [L3] description 9. Sam gave the front desk a detailed (describe) of his lost backpack and hoped someone would return it soon.
- [L1] immediately 10. Kenny saw a house on fire and called 911 (immediate). Then the fire engines came right away.
- [L2] indicate 11. Many studies (indication) that doing exercise is good for our health.
- delight 12. Cindy's dog felt great (delightful) when she arrived home from work.

II. 文法選擇：15%

- (B) 1. Students often find science courses _____ physics and mathematics hard to study.
(A) in addition to (B) such as (C) apart from (D) in spite of
- (C) 2. Many people aim to scale Mount Everest, but _____ are able to succeed.
(A) little (B) a little (C) few (D) a few
- L1 (B) 3. I heard Sophia _____ with her boyfriend on the phone last night.
(A) argued (B) arguing (C) to argue (D) having argued
- L2 (A) 4. Having been overloaded with work for too long, I spent my long vacation reading _____ many novels _____ I could.
(A) as; as (B) so; as (C) more; than (D) such; as
- L3 (D) 5. It doesn't matter _____ he will agree with our proposal or not.
(A) what (B) how (C) when (D) whether

III. 綜合測驗：15%

Enjoying some tea in the afternoon is a great British custom. But did you know that the British have 1. low 1. high tea?

In England, people take afternoon tea between 3 and 6 p.m. They enjoy not only tea 2. sandwiches and cakes. The nineteenth-century English duchess Anna Russell likely started this pastime. She liked to have snacks and tea at 4 p.m. Later, this became a custom among British high society. One would see snacks and teas 3. on low tables. This is why we call the custom “low tea.”

High tea usually takes place between 5 and 7 p.m. Workers were often too busy to eat big lunches. 4. this, they were hungry in the afternoon. After they 5. work, they would have tea and filling foods. They sat on high-backed chairs while they ate, which inspired the term “high tea.”

Today, afternoon tea is a part of daily life for most people in the UK.

- (B) 1. (A) not; but (B) both; and (C) either; or (D) neither; nor
- (D) 2. (A) and (B) or (C) besides (D) but
- L1 (A) 3. (A) being served (B) serving (C) to serve (D) serve
- (C) 4. (A) In spite of (B) Far from (C) Because of (D) Except for

- (A) 5. (A) got off (B) paid off (C) showed off (D) took off

IV. 句型練習：16%

1. Mercury is the closest planet to the sun. Earth, on the other hand, is the third-closest planet to the sun. (以 while 合併句子)

Mercury is the closest planet to the sun, while Earth is the third-closest planet to the sun.

2. { Last Saturday, I watched an animation. (以 that 合併句子)
The animation was adapted from the classic Chinese novel Journey to the West.

Last Saturday, I watched an animation that was adapted from the classic Chinese novel Journey to the West.

(3-4 題以 Despite/In spite of + N/V-ing..., S + V...改寫句子)

- [L1] 3. There are a lot of challenges, but he still feels sure that he will succeed in the end. (...N....)

Despite/In spite of a lot of challenges, he still feels sure that he will succeed in the end.

- [L1] 4. Though Ian woke up early this morning, he was still late for work because of the traffic. (...V-ing....)

Despite/In spite of waking up early this morning, Ian was still late for work because of the traffic.

V. 引導式翻譯：9%

1. 我們早上從家裡出發，希望午餐前能到達農場。

We started off from our home in the morning and hoped to make it to the farm by lunchtime.

2. 如果你沒有足夠的錢買房子，你可以跟銀行要求貸款。

If you don't have enough money to buy a house, you can ask for a loan from the bank.

3. 要緊的是應該儘快舉行全國會議，以便能解決這些金融問題。

It is important that a national meeting should be held as soon as possible to solve these financial problems.

4. Jasmine 邀請她的朋友到她家參加她的生日派對。

Jasmine invited her friends over for her birthday party.

VI. 閱讀測驗：9%

When tea was first introduced to Britain in the early seventeenth century, it was meant only for the rich. The wife of King Charles II, Catherine of Braganza, began the custom of drinking tea, and soon it spread across the English Royal Court. In 1717, the first tea shop for ladies was opened by Thomas Twining. Gradually, tea shops appeared throughout the country, and tea became available to everyone.

These days there are close to 1,500 different types of tea in Britain, and they all vary in taste and style. Many British people like to drink tea from India. The three most popular types of Indian tea in the United Kingdom are Darjeeling, a light tea that is perfect for afternoon tea, Ceylon, and Assam.

The British drink a lot of Chinese tea too. Two favorites are Lapsang Souchong and Yunnan. Lapsang Souchong comes from the hills in northern Fujian and has a smoky flavor. Yunnan is a black tea with an earthy taste. Many other tea varieties are also enjoyed by the British. When it comes to tea, the British just might be the world's biggest fans.

- (B) 1. What is the best title for this passage?
- (A) History of Tea in Britain (B) Drinking Tea in England
(C) The Most Popular Teas in Britain (D) Why British People Drink So Much Tea
- (A) 2. According to the passage, which of the following statements is NOT correct?
- (A) Thomas Twining began the custom of drinking tea.
(B) There are various kinds of tea in Britain nowadays.
(C) Tea was first brought to Britain during the seventeenth century.
(D) The first tea shop for women appeared in the eighteenth century.
- (D) 3. What can be inferred from the passage?
- (A) The British don't enjoy drinking Chinese tea.
(B) There are not many types of tea available in Britain.
(C) A lot of British people are fond of drinking tea from the US.
(D) The British like many other kinds of tea besides Chinese and Indian teas.